Paul W. Lee is of counsel at Goodwin Procter LLP in Boston. Paul has over 35 years of experience advising boards of directors and representing large and small public and privately held companies in connection with business, securities and M&A transactional matters. Since winding down his client practice in 2013, he has concentrated his efforts on extensive community and public interest work and serves on the board of multiple organizations including the Boston Foundation.

Helen Chin Schlichte entered public service in 1949. She retired in 2003 from her position as Assistant to the Secretary for Administration and Finance in Massachusetts. Throughout her career, Schlichte served in leadership positions at many nonprofit organizations such as the Kwong Kow Chinese School, South Cove Manor Nursing Home, United Way of Massachusetts Bay and Merrimack Valley and the Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center, among others.

Kimberly Blakemore is the program officer for Tufts Health Plan Foundation where she works on systems-level and policy change for healthy aging. Her work for the Foundation spans the social determinants of health, including the built environment, transportation, housing and food access. She began her career in investment banking and corporate strategy, bringing a multi-sector lens to her work. She is deeply interested in solutions addressing climate and clean energy, sustainable agriculture, and land and water conservation.

Stephen Chan serves as Vice President of Strategy and Operations at the Boston Foundation. Previously, Stephen served as an Advisor to Mayor Thomas M. Menino at the City of Boston where he launched the Mayor’s Office of Food Initiatives. Stephen is a board member of the Massachusetts LGBT Chamber of Commerce, Philanthropy Massachusetts, and Asian American Pacific Islanders in Philanthropy where he serves as national board chair. In 2006, he co-founded Saffron Circle, Boston’s first Asian giving circle held at the Boston Foundation.
Shu (Nick) Chau opened Tai Tung Pharmacy, Inc. in February of 1977, just outside of Boston’s Chinatown. In 1984, after working side by side with his wife, Eva, Nick established Tai Tung Realty, Inc., a real estate sales and service agency. Nick has served as a Board member of the Asian Community Development Corporation, the Chinatown Neighborhood Council, the Bunker Hill Community College Foundation and the South Cove Community Health Center.

Pam Y. Eddinger, Ph.D. is president of Bunker Hill Community College. Dr. Eddinger previously served as president of Moorpark College in Southern California. Her service in the Community College movement spans more than 25 years. Dr. Eddinger serves on a number of boards and commissions, including WGBH Boston, the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce, the Boston Foundation, the Massachusetts Workforce Development Board, the Boston Private Industry Council and others. Dr. Eddinger was honored in 2016 by the Obama White House as a Champion of Change.

Renee Inomata serves as partner at Casner & Edwards, LLP. She has been advising clients on a wide range of complex employment-related matters for over 20 years. Prior to this role, Renee was the Chair of Burns & Levinson’s Employment Group, and a member of the firm’s Executive Committee. Renee currently sits on GBH’s Board of Advisors, the Boston Bar Association’s Women’s Leadership and Advancement Forum Planning Committee and the Boston Bar Association’s Nominating Committee. She also serves as a mentor in the Women’s Bar Association Women’s Leadership Institute.

Dr. Peter Nien-chu Kiang (江念祖) is Professor and Director of the Asian American Studies Program in the School for Global Inclusion and Social Development and the College of Education & Human Development at the University of Massachusetts Boston where he has taught since 1987. Peter served for six years as chair of the Massachusetts Advisory Committee for the US Commission on Civil Rights, and he served eight years as co-president of the Chinese Historical Society of New England.
Elaine Ng serves as Chief Executive Officer of TSNE MissionWorks. As a 25-year veteran of the nonprofit and education sectors, Elaine has a passion and commitment for organizations that shift the paradigm of equity and access. Most recently, she held the positions of Strategic Planning Director for Special Education for Boston Public Schools, and Executive Director of the Boston Chinatown Neighborhood Center.

Sovanna Pouv is the Executive Director of the Cambodian Mutual Assistance Association of Greater Lowell (CMAA). Born in the Sra Kao and then later relocated to Khao-I-Dang refugee camp in Thailand, Sovanna ultimately moved to Lowell after discovering his sister, the only member of his family to survive the Cambodian genocide, was living within the city. Prior to his role at CMAA, Sovanna worked at the United Teen Equality Center for 12 years while helping to grow the organization. Sovanna currently serves on the board of directors for the Greater Lowell Health Alliance, Jeanne D’Arc Credit Union and the Lowell Development and Financial Corporation, among others.

Sarah G. Kim is a Deputy Treasurer and General Counsel for the Office of the Massachusetts State Treasurer & Receiver General. Before joining the Treasury, Ms. Kim was an Assistant Attorney General in the Fraud and Financial Crimes Division under Attorney General Martha Coakley. Prior to that, Ms. Kim was an attorney at Bingham McCutchen LLP (now Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP). Ms. Kim has been a long-time supporter of several Boston-area community organizations, including the Asian Task Force Against Domestic Violence, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston, the Boston Bar Association, and the Asian American Lawyers Association of Massachusetts.