

Mike Dillon

Former PWC Partner and Chief Diversity Officer
(Co-Chair)

Mike Dillon is a board officer, strategic advisor, and former executive with a background in corporate and nonprofit organizations. As a former partner at PwC, Mike helped clients attain their goals through his advice concerning mergers and acquisitions, audits and accounting. In 2016, he was chosen for a three-year term on PwC's senior leadership team as chief diversity & inclusion officer. Mike concluded his career with PwC after 33 years in 2020.

In his nonprofit work, Mike has served as a board member, officer, and executive committee member on The Trevor Project, The Commons-Provincetown, Project Open Hand, and the San Francisco AIDS Foundation, as well as a trustee of the PwC Foundation. In addition to serving as co-chair of the Equality Fund's Advisory Committee at the Boston Foundation, Mike is a founder and member of the Global LGBTQ+ Human Rights Program at the Harvard Kennedy School Carr-Ryan Center for Human Rights.

Mike attained a master of public health degree from the T.H. Chan School at Harvard University and a bachelor of arts in accounting from New York University.

The EQUALITY Fund
AT THE BOSTON FOUNDATION

