

Bailey Siber

Executive Lead, Strategic Partners, GCODE

Bailey Siber graduated from Tufts University in 2018 with a Bachelor of Science in community health and clinical psychology with a concentration in computer science. After graduating, she participated as a fellow at Horizons, where she further developed her computer science and entrepreneurial skills. As a young Middle Eastern American woman in tech, Siber cares deeply about working at the intersections of technology, advocacy, and public health to address the underlying social determinants that inequitably impact marginalized communities.
