

Kyara “DJ TROY Frost” Andrade- Howell

Kyara Andrade-Howell,
also known as DJ TROY

Frost, is an artist, educator, and event curator from Dorchester and Roxbury. She started DJing in 2013 and completed Scratch DJ Academy’s certification program in 2015. After graduating from Barnard College in 2017, she worked as a DEI consultant, and for Boston Public Schools in various roles. In 2019, she piloted The Breaks, an enrichment program that gave 15 Boston youth an introduction to the pillars of Hip Hop.

Kyara now works part-time at Frugal Bookstore in Roxbury. She is currently working on growing Purple Produce, an event series focused on Hip Hop, wellness, literacy and community collaboration.
