

Red Shaydez

Red Shaydez, a versatile artist hailing from Boston with roots in Macon, GA and Jamaica, excels across multiple creative disciplines. She is not only a celebrated hip-hop lyricist and Boston Music Award winner but also a Recording Academy voting member for the GRAMMYS.

Beyond music, Red is a skilled video producer and a respected mentor. Her dynamic talent and vibrant personality have garnered acclaim from various media outlets, including MTV, BET JAMS, Boston 25 News, The Boston Globe, NPR MUSIC, and others. Her influence spans both local and national stages, solidifying her as a prominent figure in contemporary hip-hop and entertainment.