

Seba Molnar / Charles River Jazz Festival & Boston Jazz Foundation

Seba Molnar is an award-winning saxophonist, composer, and educator based in Boston, Massachusetts. Known for his dynamic performances, Molnar has shared stages with Grammy-winning artists like Ghost-Note, Braxton Cook, Patrice Rushen, Makaya McCraven and many more.

He frequently tours New England and has played at major festivals such as the Boston First Night, BAMs Fest, Boston Jazz Festival and Burlington Discover Jazz Fest. In 2020, he released his debut album “Level Up.” Molnar is also the founder and executive director of the Charles River Jazz Festival and the Boston Jazz Foundation, dedicated to revitalizing the jazz scene through education and performance opportunities.