

Olga Tacure

Executive Director, Women Encouraging Empowerment

Olga Tacure is the Executive Director of Women Encouraging Empowerment (WEE). She joined WEE as a Parent Lead Organizer in 2017 and also served as a Board Member. In 2019, she was named Executive Director.

Deeply committed to public education and education equity, Olga helped launch the Revere Education Justice Alliance, was one of the first immigrant women to serve in a leadership role on Revere High School's PTO, and is an alumnus of the Parent Leadership Training Institute. Her extensive past community involvement includes working with the Revere Cares Coalition as a Union Capital Boston Network Leader and serving on the City of Revere's Master Plan Steering Committee.

- Leadership Superpower: Relationship Building
- What brings her joy: Helping people
- Theme Song: "Mojado" by Ricardo Arjona e Intocable